

ELHAM HAWSAWI

I am a graduate of a finance diploma and I look forward to working in a financial management position in a supportive and positive work environment to advance and gain new skills and experiences to achieve my personal goals, move up the career ladder, and enter the labor market

One of my excellent skills in dealing with customers is that I trained at Amanat Al Asimah Contracts and Procurement Department and an association to develop customer dealing skills

I aspire to work as a school administrator
